CCCG 2007

The 19th Canadian Conference on Computational Geometry

August 20-22, 2007

Welcome Reception

The welcome reception will take place from 17:00-20:00 on Sunday August 19th. A registration desk will be open in the lobby of the Herzberg Physics Building. This is the building labelled HP on the Campus Map.

Conference Location

All coffee breaks, technical sessions, and invited talks are accessed through the foyer of the Tory Building (labelled TB on the Campus Map). Technical sessions are in 340 TB and 342 TB, and the invited talks will be in 360 TB.

Meals and Refreshments

Meals and refreshments are available in a number of locations on and off campus. The welcome reception and all coffee breaks are included with registration.

On Campus

The Food Court has many common restaurants and is located on the 2nd floor of the University Centre (which is connected to the Tory Building and labelled UC on the Campus Map). Also in the University Centre are Oliver's Pub (on the 1st floor) and Rooster's Coffeehouse (on the 4th floor). The Loeb Café has a traditional grill menu and can be found in the basement of the Loeb Building (labelled LA on the Campus Map). Buffet meals are available for breakfast, lunch, and dinner on the 3rd floor of the Residence Commons (labelled CO on the Campus Map). Detailed information for on campus restaurants is online at `http://www.campusdish.com/en-US/CA/Carleton/Locations/`.

Off Campus

Bank Street offers many restaurants that are a short distance from Carleton (about a 15 minute walk). You can get there by walking along Sunnyside Avenue starting from the main entrance to campus, or by a ride on the Number 7 St. Laurent bus. Suggestions include Siam Kitchen (1050 Bank Street), The Barley Mow (1060 Bank Street), Pe-Nan Wok (1098 Bank Street), and Sacred Garden (1300 Bank Street).

Parking

Information on parking, including a campus parking map, is online at `http://www.carleton.ca/parking/`.

Banquet

The banquet starts at 18:30 on Tuesday August 21st. It will be held downtown at the Chateau Laurier Hotel (1 Rideau Street). You can get there by bus on the Number 4 Downtown or the Number 7 St. Laurent. You can also walk there along the Rideau Canal. You must present your CCCG 2007 name tag to be allowed into the banquet.

Wireless

Access to wireless internet is included with registration and will be available from Monday to Wednesday in the Tory Building.
